Mason Circuit Court.

The case of R. M. Wallingford against the C. and O. Railway Company has occupied the time and attention of the Court for the past two days.

The plaintiff's complaint is that the defender's sewer that spans Goose Creek is not of wide enough scope as to permit the water that flows down the ancient course after a heavy fall of rain to pass through uninterrupted, and in consequence the garden and premises of plaintiff are inundated and greatly damaged thereby.

The Jury wrestling with the case, accompanied by Sheriff Mackey, visited the scene last evening and viewed the landscape o'er in order to better inform themselves as to whose ox is being gored. The lawyers will argue the case today.

The following indictments were returned, all for selling liquor to a minor—

TRUANT OFFICER

Replies to Article in Tuesday's Ledger and Writes of Some of His Experiences

Editor of Public Ledger: I would like to write a few lines in answer to the article appearing in your paper Tuesday under the heading of "Truants."

Yes, if the "City Truant Officer" had happened along the C. and O. road Monday afternoon the "truants" would have scattered in all directions, but as he is supposed to visit seven school buildings each day and the homes of every absent pupil there is no time left for traversing the railroad.

If the writer would call and examine the Truant Officer's record he would be convinced that he knows who are the truants, and if the writer would go with him to some of the homes he would not be surprised at boys playing truant and "shooting craps," for one fond mother informed him today that she would keep her children home when she pleased and the law could not take hold of her. He made during the month of September 97 visits, October 77, November 90, and so far this month 50. If he has been remiss in his duties he submits himself for public censure.

Signed: TRUANT OFFICER

SOCIAL EVENTS

Those members of the Central Church who were absent from the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Darnall on Tuesday evening should regard the fact with life long regret.

It was a feast to the eye, those beautiful decorations of green things lavishly hung about, entwining many brilliant Christmas bells.

The occasion for this delightful gathering was a reception tendered by Mrs. Robert L. Baldwin and the younger women of the Church to Mr. and Mrs. John I. Winter and son, Arthur Lee, Mrs. and Miss Elliott and Mrs. Bishop, who are all about to leave the Church and this city for Texas, where they will make their future homes. On entering one was most gracefully welcomed by Mrs. Holstein, who soon sent you on your way down the "receiving line." No sooner, however, were greetings exchanged than words of regret were heard on all sides for the approaching departure of our so valued Church members. Beside those mentioned as being in "the line," our beloved Pastor and his winsome wife were largely in evidence. All that was lacking for the merriment of the occasion was the presence of Mr. Lafe Mc—, who must have been "unavoidably detained," as his devotion to "John I." is well known among his friends.

In point of decorations, with the handsome silver candelabra, brilliant lights and holly trimmings, the dining-room, where delicious refreshments were served, almost exceeded the reception rooms.

The cloth covering the table was a work of art in its airy, fairy 'broidery of holly and leaves. With Mrs. Howland to welcome all comers to the feast; Mrs. Ben Poyntz to preside at the coffee-urn, and the young ladies of the Bazaar Club to serve as waiters, one was assured of satisfactory attention in that beautiful room. No one seemed to enjoy his surroundings more than did Mr. Darnall, who presided with genial dignity throughout the evening over a constantly changing coterie of both ladies and gentlemen.

In bidding farewell to those going Texas-ward we could not but have a feeling of sorrow that friends must so part and yet we were cheered by the thought of their bright prospects, all our sorrow went by and we realized that our feeling resembled sorrow only as mist resembles rain, and we wished them "God speed."

THE PUBLIC LEDGER is pained to announce the death in Covington Tuesday of Charles W. Reaume, husband of Adelaide Schuster Reaume, aged 50 years. Funeral tomorrow morning, with Requiem Mass at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's Cathedral, Covington.

Mr. Reaume was for many years one of the most popular Collectors on C. and O. passenger trains and was on the Maysville Accommodation for five years.

He was a gentleman by breeding and instinct, courteous and firm in his conduct and the devoted idol of his devoted wife and daughters.

He was at one time dreadfully injured in a C. and O. wreck and when the Hospital doctors wanted to amputate his leg he told them he would shoot them if they attempted the operation. He saved his limb and lived fifteen years after.
